

GULFSTREAM G650ER

OVERVIEW

As the fastest ultra-long-range business jet in the world, the Gulfstream G650ER is one of the most coveted aircraft among the global travelling elite. With phenomenal range capabilities and industry-leading cabin technology, it also offers unparalleled passenger comfort.

The Qatar Executive G650ER aircraft can easily fly non-stop from the Middle East to North America or from destinations in Asia to Africa. It can fly further, faster than any other jet of its kind, and is perfectly suited for those whose travel needs include flights halfway around the globe.
